

8. Where to Get More Help

There are several fantastic books on Access – visit your local bookstore or go to an on-line store like Amazon. Here are a few of my favorites:

Access 2007 VBA Programmer's Reference (Programmer to Programmer)
by Teresa Hennig, Rob Cooper, Geoffrey L. Griffith, Armen Stein

Microsoft Office Access 2007 Inside Out by John Viescas and Jeff Conrad

Access Developer's Handbook
by Paul Litwin, Ken Getz, and Mike Gilbert (Mike Gunderloy was co-author for version 2002)

Expert Access 2007 Programming
by Rob Cooper and Michael Tucker

RibbonX : Customizing the Office 2007 Ribbon
Robert Martin, Ken Puls, Teresa Hennig, Oliver Stohr

Grover Park George On Access: Unleash the Power of Access by George Hepworth

Microsoft Office Access 2007 VBA (Business Solutions)
by Scott B. Diamond and Brent Spaulding

And so many more! Too numerous to mention!

Forums and Newsgroups

Reading is a great way to learn but there is no substitute for interaction with others while you are figuring things out. There are a number of forums and newsgroups you can join for free and experienced folks graciously volunteer their time to answer your questions.
